Re: In Re: Terrorist Attacks on September 11, 2001, 03 MDL 1570 (GBD) (SN)

Dear Judge Netburn:

The Plaintiffs' Executive Committees ("PECs") write to request a brief extension of two business days for the deadline to respond to the under-seal filings of made by the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia on Monday, August 19, 2019. At present, the PECs are to respond by Friday, August 23, 2019. We request that that deadline be adjusted to Tuesday, August 27, 2019.

The extension is necessary because several members of the PECs are unavailable due to travel to New York for a meet and confer with the Department of Justice today. We received the Kingdom's filing on Monday evening. Yesterday and today have been and will be used for travel to and from and to attend a meet and confer that has been a long time in the planning due to summer schedules on both sides of the meeting.

As a result, the PECs are requesting an additional two business days to allow us to coordinate the PECs' response to the Kingdom's August 19, 2019 filings. This is the PECs' first request for an extension related to this application. We have asked Mr. Kellogg, counsel for the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, and he has advised that the Kingdom does not oppose this request.

The Plaintiffs' Executive Committees' request is GRANTED.

SO ORDERED.
